Storytelling with The Moth

ABOUT

The Moth is an acclaimed not-for-profit organization dedicated to the art and craft of storytelling, and a recipient of a 2012 John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation MacArthur Award for Creative & Effective Institutions (MACEI). Through its ongoing programs—The Moth Mainstage, The Moth StorySLAMs, The Moth Community & Education Programs, and Moth Corporate Programs—The Moth has presented more than ten thousand stories, told live and without notes, to standing-room-only crowds worldwide. The Moth podcast is downloaded nearly 25 million times a year, and the Peabody Award-winning The Moth Radio Hour, produced by Jay Allison and presented by PRX, The Public Radio Exchange, airs weekly on radio stations nationwide. The new Moth Mobile App for iOS and Android, and the national bestseller, The Moth: 50 True Stories (Hyperion), are available now. themoth.org

PRESENTED BY

Kate Tellers is the Senior Producer, Corporate Programs at The Moth, a StorySLAM host, Mainstage storyteller and a member of the The Moth's Creative Team. Past partners include the Kellogg Foundation, Ogilvy + Mather, Nike, Google and the Haifa Film Festival.

STORYTELLING TIP:

At The Moth we find that great stories pivot on a moment of change. As you start to think about your own story, consider how the events in the story have changed you.

In your story you go from _____ to _____
